Art Unit: 2153

1. Claims 1-7 are presented for examination.
2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:
 - (a) on page 1, last 3 line of the background of the invention, applicant is recommend to delete the word "can".
 - (b) throughout the specification including the claims, there is no space between a word and a number (e.g., Figure1, Figure2, Step1, Step2, claim1, claim2, etc.). Applicant is recommend to correct this typographical error.
3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. §102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

 - (a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.
4. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. §102(a) as being anticipated by the applicant admitted prior art in the background of the invention in [hereinafter AAPA].
5. AAPA anticipates (e.g., see Fig. 1) the invention substantially as claimed. Taking claims 1-2 as exemplary claims, the reference anticipates a method for preventing IP address in dynamic or dynamic allocation, comprising: detecting , by using an exchange, in a legal subscriber address table whether there is a matching item corresponding to the MAC address and the source IP address involved in an Address Resolution Protocol (ARP) packet which is sent from a subscriber terminal; if so, adding the source IP address and the source MAC address involved in the ARP packet to the ARP table so as to make it possible for the subscriber terminal to access to network; otherwise, discarding the ARP packet; and adding a message of a new subscriber terminal to said legal subscriber address table (e.g., see the background section).

Art Unit: 2153

6. Claims 3-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The references are cited in the Form PTO-892 for the applicant's review.

A shortened statutory period for response to this action is set to expire 3 (three) months and 0 (zero) days from the mail date of this letter. Failure to respond within the period for response will result in ABANDONMENT of the application (see 35 U.S.C 133, M.P.E.P 710.02, 710.02(b)).
